Chapter 1: The Matter External HDD Is The Most Assuring Companion

Deet and I returned to my apartment room. The two of us took a peek inside Japanese-style room just in case Lia was awake.

"I was worried..... but it seems she's sound asleep. I thought that we made quite a ruckus before" (Toru) "I guess she is really worn out, let's not disturb her" (Deet) Deet said so with a gentle voice. I have been thinking about this for awhile, but their relationship isn't actually that bad.

"Deet actually doesn't dislike Lia, right?" (Toru)

After a brief of silence she said.

"We often get into fight because that girl is a busybody but I don't dislike the person herself" (Deet) I see, it's just as I speculated. If Deet really disliked Lia, I thought about how I should avoid to put the two in the same place.

"Then why do you always provoke her?" (Toru)

"Being friendly with her is different matter entirely" (Deet) "I won't ask you two to become good friends but please make effort to get along at least" (Toru) "I will try to get along with her" (Deet)

It seems she doesn't really meant it. However, I am too sleepy to persuade Deet to change her attitude towards Lia.

"For now, shall we head back to sleep?" (Toru)

"Hey, can I sleep together in the bed with Toru? Because I will sleep in bloomers" (Deet) "No, you made a promise with Lia!!" (Toru)

"Hmph.....!" (Deet)

I would like to head back to sleep. We separate ourselves into Japanese-style room and Western-style room respectively.

I understand about status and skills in general and Deet will also teach me for now on.

It was decided I would aim to become a dungeon master for some reason. For that, she is going to cooperate in raising my level.

Of course there is still the excitement left but for now, I want to sleep peacefully.

"Good morning! Great wiseman-sama! It's already morning~ It's already morning~" (Lia) I just fell asleep a moment ago but a cheerful voice has woken me up. I wondered who is that, then I saw Lia greet me from the side of the bed.

Her golden hair and smiling face shining under the morning sunshine. However, I'm too sleepy to admire her right now.

"No, it's still too early, let me sleep a little longer~!!" (Toru) It's 8 o'clock in the morning. It's still early indeed. I want to sleep a little longer.

"Your life's rhythm will collapse if you are going back to sleep now. It's already a very late in the morning" (Lia) Hmm? Something is strange? I got up and sat on the bed.

"How do you know that it's late in the morning?" (Toru)

In the first place I think that 8 o'clock is not late. It's strange because the other side of the window should look like a stone wall in her eyes.

"Mou~ great wiseman-sama, are you still half asleep?" (Lia) Lia pointed to the small window in the Western-style room.

"Is the stone wall shining like the sunshine?" (Toru)

Oh, I get it. It seems, that it looks that way for Lia..... no, for people of the world at dungeon's side in general.

"Isn't that an artifact made by great wiseman-sama so that you could live healthily even inside the dungeon? Then hurry wake up~!" (Lia) She pulled my hand to make me stand.

I never dreamed, that I will experience the situation where a beautiful girl wakes me up early in the morning, but I still want to sleep in fact.

Lia pulled my hand against my will towards the washroom, I was walking like a zombie.

"Now, wash your face and brush your teeth, please come to the dining room after you finish" (Lia) Lia went to the kitchen after saying so.

There was Deet who also was moving like a zombie next to me. By the way, it seems that she was really went to bed in bloomers, maybe she liked it.

"Good morning..... Now I understand why you called her a meddling knight" (Toru) "Good morning..... right!?" (Deet)"

The two of us wash our faces and brush our teeth.

As we were told, we went to dining room and sat on chairs. There were black objects on the plates in front of us.

"What is this?" (Toru)

I asked.

"Yesterday, I watched Toru-sama make the dishes, so I made something for breakfast" (Lia) Of course the dish I made wasn't like this.

When I stabbed it with a fork, a yellow object that still remained a little on the inside come out. I understood that it's egg yolk from that.

"I endured it because Toru wanted me to get along with you, but is this some kind of harassment?" (Deet) Deet said so to Lia with a cold voice about the thing that we talked about yesterday.

Surprisingly, Deet seems had heard my request.

"I'm so-sorry. Toru-sama's artifacts are very useful but are hard to use" (Lia) I think that she could use the stove just by watching me. Even so, how could this egg turned into some kind of black matter?

"I haven't eaten for a long time and I'm very hungry right now" (Deet) The eyes of a beautiful elf turn sharp.

Both Lia and I ate hamburger steak yesterday, but Deet hasn't eaten anything surely.

Deet was carrying a black leather waist pouch for exploring the dungeon.

Forget about quality, it seems it didn't contain enough quantity as well.

"I understand!! I will get something else for breakfast for the time being. Let's the three of us have something delicious for lunch" (Toru) "Unn~ I'm sorry....." (Lia)

I open the box of granola fruit and serve it on plate.

Some people eat it with with milk just as is, but it would be more delicious to add some sugar to it.

Three dishes were placed on the table at once.

"Am-Amazing, so fast!!" (Lia)

"It's indeed fast, but is this delicious? It seems you mix it with milk" (Deet) It seems that they are wary of the taste of granola fruit so I demonstrate how to eat it.

"It's delicious. There are small dried fruits inside" (Toru) It seems they decided to try it after seeing me eat deliciously.

"Oh..... it's sweet, it's sooo delicious" (Lia)

"Yeah it's delicious..... I was worried about the taste because Toru prepared it so fast" (Deet) After the meal, Lia said that she wants to clean the dishes herself.

"This room, which the great wiseman-sama lives in, has a lot of strange paper boxes scattered" (Lia) Do you mean cardboard? It's because I just moved in here.

"Please let me tidy it up" (Lia)

"Well, thank you very much" (Toru)

I hid my Otaku goods inside the Japanese-style room's closet. Because I have told her that that place is prohibited and shouldn't be touched, I guess it's okay. I need to remind her just in case.

"Well then, please ask me if I have something you don't know about because I will be inside the Western-style room" (Toru) It's just the right time to set up my computer. But looking at Lia who is tidying up inside the kitchen, I got excited for some reason.

I open the cardboard box inside the western-style room. Since the table is already in place, I just need to set up the computer over there.

Deet was sitting on the bed behind while going up and down following my movements. The slimes under her gym clothes are also shaking because of that. Her thighs bathed under the sunshine are so dazzling.

A usual, unconscious sex appeal is amazing.

"Ah, this bed is really comfortable" (Deet)

I hope you don't fall asleep there.

I install the monitor on the table.

"Is that the computer?" (Deet)

"To be precise, it's monitor that's connected to computer. We will be able to see the insides of the dungeon from here. And this one is CPU..... the computer" (Toru) Because it's the large tower type, I connect it to monitor and put it under the desk.

"Done. I hope it's not broken..... Yeah, it looks good" (Toru) Deet twitches the moment when the boot screen of OS appears and immediately ask a question. It seems she is interested.

"The strange blue screen came out but it's not a picture of the dungeon" (Deet) "It can't show the inside of dungeon for now" (Toru)

"I see" (Deet)

"But I will show you something great!!" (Toru)

"Something great?" (Deet)

It's not my treasure pictures when I said I will show her something great. Or rather, I need to hide them inside external HDD at the early stage.

I will do that serious mission later.....

"Found it~!!" (Toru)

It's a net connection kit that I received from the real estate agent. It cost ¥5.000 of extra charge outside the ¥30.000 of rent fee.

It was so attractive offer to have complete environment when I can access internet through fiber optic network system as soon as I moved in.

"Yup, it's connected to internet. Go to Yo-tube" (Toru)

"Wh-What is that? Fa-Fairy? It's not, right?" (Deet)

Deet touched the guitar player on the live concert that was reflected on the monitor.

"Ha-Ha-Ha..... That person is a musician. The sound doesn't come out because I haven't connected the loudspeaker yet" (Toru) Well, if Deet wasn't here, I'd probably choose to listen to Miku-chan's song right now. But I want to try to look good a little.

(TL : He is talking about Hatsune Miku, I guess)

I go to the kitchen to check on Lia while Deet was nailed to the monitor "Lia~" (Toru)

"Ah, Toru-sama~" (Lia)

My pants and T-shirt had been beautifully folded and were put inside the kitchen cupboard.

The kitchen that was already clean has been further polished using a cloth rag.

"You really work hard~!" (Toru)

"Yes!! I love cooking and cleaning. Though the dish has failed" (Lia) Not just cooking, the way she is cleaning up is somewhat wrong. But looking at her happy face when doing it, I can't say a thing.

Chapter 2: I Want To Solve The Money Problem

Deet came from behind while I was watching Lia cleaning up.

"Hey Toru, please take me to Japan while Lia is still cleaning up" (Deet) "It's impossible now" (Toru)

"Why is it?" (Deet)

"We can't leave Lia alone here, right?" (Toru)

I thought she wouldn't be convinced with just that excuse, but it seems she listening to me this time. But with hmph!!- she turned away afterwards.

However, as the number of people that live here increased, the necessary to go to Japan to do some shopping did too.

I don't have enough money so I rented cheap property even though it seemed a little dubious, but the needs of money keep coming one after another.

I got some idea to solve this problem but I need to take Deet's mood into consideration.

"Deet, did you see the room next to the washroom where we brushed our teeth together?" (Toru) "Hmph, I don't know....." (Deet)

"There is a bath there" (Toru)

"Re-Really?" (Deet)

"You may enter anytime" (Toru)

"Hmph....." (Deet)

It seems her mood has recovered a little. Just one more push!!

"Umm..... I will cooperate to increase your growth limits one more level" (Toru) "Wh-Wh-What is this so suddenly? I still have two levels to spare so it's fine!!" (Deet) She refused up front, even though she insisted before. But her mood seems to have returned because her face formed a smile.

"Deet, I want to ask a little favor" (Toru)

"What is this? Toru" (Deet)

"Will you buy the bloomers and the school swimsuit?" (Deet)

"Eh? I was thinking to ask you that myself! But I only have the money from this world, you know? Can you use it?"(Deet) "I have thought of something about that, please come here!" (Toru) I bring Deet in front of my computer.

"Let me see the money you have" (Toru)

"Sure~" (Deet)

Deet took out the bag from a black leather pochette. Unlike Lia who had only five coins, this bag contains considerable amount of silver and gold coins.

"These are Gadius gold coins, aren't they?" (Toru)

"That's right" (Deet)

"It means these gold coins are being used as currency, right?" (Toru) "Because it made from gold. It's not pure gold though, but that's right~" (Deet) I often see the sign that says "purchase gold" in downtown. It should be also listed as company which is dealing with secondhand branded-name products and tickets. I try searching with that keyword.

(TL : チケット = tickets I don't know what kind of ticket is this but it said so)

"Oh, there it is!! It seems to be taken in units of grams, surely they should buy gold coins as well" (Toru) "Really? You can take is as much as you want. To be honest, I don't think it's enough to buy school swimsuit and bloomers artifacts. This kind of artifacts can't be found even at dark auction" (Deet) "Bloomer at dark auction..... no, that's a strange combination..... Of course you won't find those there because they're being sold cheaply at Don Quijote cosplay corner. I will take 3 gold coins for each kind" (Toru) I asked Deet about the value of gold coins while at it.

First of all, the biggest gold coin with the highest value is Burns Memorial gold coin, often called as white gold coin. It seems that rare metals are mixed in it.

In the second place is the Imperial gold coin. It seems to be a gold coin that comes from a bigshot country called Iglos Empire.

Gadius gold coin is the smaller gold coin among the two. When people mention gold coins, it seems they referring to these ones.

These small gold coins are issued by a commerce country called Gadius. There is no pattern on these gold coins, but it's guaranteed to always have a certain degree of purity.

In other words, white gold coin → imperial gold coin → gold coin and then under them are silver coin → copper coin, there seems to be tenfold difference between each.

"I don't know if I can sell these gold coins but if it really works out, I might be able to live by simply selling Japanese goods to the people of other world without working part-time" (Toru) "How about living in our world?" (Deet)

"I can't pay the rent of this apartment that way" (Toru)

"Ah, that's right!! Either about this resting place to capture the dungeon, either about how you get unusual items, or either about the traps and computer, it's all possible because of this place" (Deet) "Moreover, the lifestyle in Japan is pretty good, it's hard to throw it away" (Toru) "Granola fruit is certainly delicious, tatami mat is good, and computer also seems to be fun as well" (Deet) "Those all are just something trivials. For the time being, why don't you try Japanese bathroom? You should enter it with Lia" (Toru) "With Lia?" (Deet)

"You need her to teach you how to use it. I will go do shopping in the meantime" (Toru) I laugh and call out Lia.

"Liaaa~!!!" (Toru)

"Yes, I'm coming. What is it?" (Lia)

"Will you take a bath with Deet?" (Toru)

Deet is protesting.

"Just a minute!! I'm fine going alone" (Deet)

"Understood!! I will teach Deet-san how to use the bath. Come on, take off your clothes!!" (Lia) "Please stop it!! I can do it by myself!!" (Deet)

"Because it will be serious if you make a mistake. I went kyaa~!! last time because I made a mistake and had Toru-sama help me" (Lia) I thought about watching them a little longer but I'm more interested in conversion about the gold coins right now.

I decide to leave through the window after taking a glance at the figures of the two behind me one more time.

"Purchase gold in high price! The assessment is based on weight"

I feel somewhat tense upon entering the store. The purchase amount was written in more details over there.

I see..... the price per weight changed depending on the content (purity). Such things were written on the net as well.

I call out the onee-san at the counter.

"Excuse me. I'd like to ask for assessment of the gold that I want to sell" (Toru) "Certainly, Please write your address and your name on this document. Do you bring ID card?"

"I have driver license" (Toru)

I was overstraining myself to get the driver license. But of course I don't have a car.

"Yes, that's fine. How about the goods?"

"Here~" (Toru)

"Oh? There are quite a lot of gold coins that I have never seen before....."

"No, I'm still not sure if this is gold. I found it inside my late grandmother's warehouse" (Toru) The world on the dungeon's side culture seems only devoted to the design of gold coin because there are no letters or numbers carved on it.

Let's claim it as sculptured medal because it may couldn't be sold if It seemed to be used as currency somewhere or contained historical value.

The onee-san took out a thick gold coin catalog on the spot and checked it.

Actually, I looked it up on the net, it seems that a lot foreigners come to Japan to sell gold since there is difference between domestic and foreign gold prices.

Well, there are also people who were caught at the airport because they brought gold from overseas to Japan without paying the taxes. But of course selling the gold itself is legal.

"It certainly doesn't fall under the currency of any country. Because there is no such value, I will buy it based on content and weight. Please wait a moment!!"

I did it~!! I did it~!! It might be good with the gold of whatever origin. The shop side will not take responsibility either.

Thirty minutes after waiting.

"This small medal is ¥ 9,400"

One Gadius gold coin with no design is worth almost ¥10,000?

Ca-Calm down, it's still too early to get excited.

"This medal with human design included....."

The empire gold coin huh. That is a portrait of the first emperor.

"I will buy it for ¥97,000"

Al-Al-Almost one hundred thousand yen?

"For real?" (Toru)

"Yes. In addition, the biggest medal is likely gold-plated platinum"

Platinum is higher than gold, isn't it? Besides it's bigger among the two.

"I can't buy it right away because it needs further investigation"

Are you really serious? In the world of dungeon's side, I was told that the value will go up by ten folds.

Imperial gold coin also has 10 times the price of Gadius gold coin. Because one Imperial gold coin is ¥97,000, the price of white gold coin should be around ¥ 1,000,000.

"Well then, I will pay for the small and medium sized gold coins. I will give you the deposit certificate for the biggest gold coin and you can take its payment on a later date, how about that?"

"No, excuse me. Can I just sell only the smallest one? I will bring it here again next time" (Toru) I hurried out of the store with ¥9,400 in my hands.

"I got ¥9,400 for the time being~" (Toru)

The reason I exchanged for money only Gadius gold coin because this one was really just like ordinary medal with almost no pattern whatsoever.

The gold coins with the emperor's face etc. will look like containing some kind of historical value when you think about it.

If I brought it in large amounts, I would be suspected as a tomb raider in the worst case.

Because of that the safe choice is to exchange only Gadius coin, who looks like simply gold medal in Japan.

I can get about ¥10,000 for each one huh?

I throw the white gold coin into the air and catch it while laughing.

"Fufufu~ This white gold coin, if I bring it out outside the dungeon, I can exchange it for 100 Gadius gold coins in the city" (Toru)

Chapter 3: Dark Magician Is Coming

"I'm home~" (Toru)

" " Welcome home~ " " (Lia / Deet)

It's nice to have two beautiful women greet me when I come home. It would be even more pleasant if I could use the front door, not the window.

"I bought something for lunch!!" (Toru)

Deet frowned when she hear me say those words.

"Eh? Bought it?" (Lia)

Whoops!! I forgot there was a scenario about me as the great wiseman who secluded himself ininside dungeon.

Deet seems to think hard of something to cover my blunder.

"Toru-sama can go to the city of a distant country using transition magic" (Deet)

"Is that so? That's one of the legendary magics, right?" (Lia)

Deet slightly pinched my rear at the angle that invisible from Lia. She told me to be more careful.

"Th-Tha's right!!" (Toru)

I put the lunch I bought with the money from selling the Gadius gold coin on the table. It's hamburger and french fries. I decided to make my own salad with vegetables in the refrigerator.

"It looks delicious. Is this the same hamburger steak we ate yesterday? But this one is caught between bread" (Lia)

"You understand well. The one that is put between bread is called hamburger" (Toru)

Lia seemed to be happy and Deet was also surprisingly delighted.

"Is this the hamburger that Lia was talking about? I want to try it after listening to Lia about how delicious it was" (Deet)

It seems they had talking quite a lot when I wasn't around.

Their personalities are on the pollar opposite but the two might be able to become good friends unexpectedly.

"Then, let's eat while the hamburgers still warm, "Itadakimasu!!"" (Toru)

""Itadakimasu"? What is that?" (Deet)

Deet thought "Itadakimasu" might be used as a magic incantation of sort and asked.

"Hmm let's see, we eat the food in order to live, right? and "Itadakimasu" is a form of greeting to thank the food. Grandma said to never miss saying it before eating. Though didn't usually said it out of loud like before" (Toru)

"I see. Toru-sama really loves grandma?" (Lia)

"Because I was raised by grandma" (Toru)

"Fuuh~" (Deet)

While Deet is trying to further listen to my explanation, I heard "Itadakimasu!"

in a loud voice.

"Lia....." (Toru)

"The story is amazing, so I imitated Toru-sama" (Lia)

"That's right, then me too. "Itadakimasu!"" (Deet)

The two beauties are following grandma's teaching. There is nothing happier than this.

"Nnn~!! It's really delicious. Lia taught me that hamburger is delicious, but it's more than I expected. French fries can also be found in the place where I grew up" (Deet)

Deet also seems to think that hamburger is delicious, but to think there was also french fries in the other world.

"Deet-san, this hamburger is indeed delicious but....." (Lia)

"Hmm? What is it Lia?" (Deet)

"The hamburger steak that Toru-sama made yesterday is mooore and mooore delicious than this, toroon the egg yolk flowed and mixed with the sauce when I cut it....." (Lia)

Lia said something cute. I'd like to kiss her 3 times as a reward to raise her growth limits. However, there is a possibility I will eat her slap if I do such a thing suddenly.

Grip strength increase by 4 kilos for every 1 point of 【strength】 value that's raised. My neck might be broken if I get slapped by a person with such high a 【strength】 value.

Something else will be safe for a reward.

"“Gochisōsama” (thanks for the food)" (Toru)

After I teach these two otherworlders about Japan's custom after eating the meal, I put something that I bought from Don Quijote in front of Lia. I take out the content from a plastic bag.

"Waai~~~!! It's the same clothes as Deet-san!!" (Lia)

That's right. It's a set of gym uniform (with bloomers) and a school swimsuit.

Of course the female model prints wearing bloomers and school swimsuit has been taken out and thrown away before I came back to my apartment room.

"Because it's unfair, I also made the same artifacts as Deet’s for Lia. Please accept it" (Toru)

"Re-Really? I'm happy~~~!!!!!" (Lia)

Yeah, same here. I won’t find a beautiful woman who will be pleased to receive bloomers and a school swimsuit from me in Japan, it's all thanks to this property.

However, Deet is watching me with cold eyes for some reason.

"Can I change into this clothes in the dressing room?" (Lia)

"Of course. Then, let's talk together in the Japanese-style room while enjoying an after meal drink later" (Toru)

"Sure thing" (Deet)

Deet also agreed. There are things I'd like to ask from the two.

The two of us are waiting for Lia on the tatami mats in the Japanese-style room. Sitting next to me is a beautiful elf in bloomers. When our eyes meet.....

"What!? Hmph....." (Deet)

She says so and averted her eyes from me. She doesn't seem pleased that I also bought bloomer and a school swimsuit for Lia.

But surely she is just being "Tsun-Tsun"..... Giving such cold attitude in bloomers is just cute.

(TL : From Tsundere = Tsun-Tsun : cold / Dere-Dere : meek)

When I watching Deet's figure who turn her face to the other way to avoid me, the sliding door of the Japanese-style room opened and there is Lia standing.

"H-How is it? Does it suit me?" (Lia)

A goddess in stark blue has descended. Healthy hip line that have volume and roundness well-developed thoroughly until her thighs is so.....

"I'd like to make it a pillow" (Toru)

"Eh? Make a pillow?" (Lia)

The pillow that is used to sleep in this room flew to my face from the hand of an elf in bloomers's.

Asking whether the clothes suit her or not, Lia who's being told I want make her a pillow sat on the tatami mats with a strange look.

Oh well, it's tea time!! I ask what they would like to drink, and it's suprisingly cola.

"Cola was spicy at the beginning, but it's quite tasty after I drink it twice, thrice times" (Lia)

Lia seems to have gotten addicted to cola. Deet smiles with a grin while drinking cola for some reason.

"Oh yeah, cola which Toru-sama had me drink was exceptional, fufufu....."
(Deet)

Guhee!! She won't tell Lia that I made her drink it using mount-to-mouth, right?

I did nothing to be ashamed of. I just made her drink cola that way to save her from posion.

I covered her mouth with my hands when Lia isn't looking. Her face telling that she won't speaking more than that.

Well, there are such things but it's a wonderful time regardless. I drink cola with with two beauties in bloomers on the tatami mats.

However, that man came destroying my little paradise.

ding-dong!! ding-dong!!

Doorbell? Huh? Is that coming from the dungeon?

"What is that sound? I'm scared!!" (Lia)

Lia is frightened by the sound of electronic doorbell. Well, it's a normal reaction because she surely never heard an electronic doorbell sound in the medieval world. But a visitor, who on earth is that?

"Suzuki-san? Are you inside? I from NNK I came for the contract~"

What!? Is there NNK in the dungeon?

I see the face of the two, they seems to be confused so I guess they know nothing as expected. In other words, is that coming from Japan?

Oh well, I don't watch TV. Games, internet, and iPhone are enough for me. NNK is nothing to fear.

"Wh-What is that? A contract!?" (Lia)

Well, of course Lia is getting more scared. The sound of electronic doorbell, a wiseman who lives in the deep of dungeon, and now a mysterious man appears to offer some kind of contract.

"It might be a dark magician. You two please wait here, I will deal with it" (Toru)

I can't show a blonde beautiful woman and an elf who are in bloomers to this NNK fellow. He might misunderstand and think I have some kind of twisted hobby. In the worst case, I will get reported.

"Is this safe to go alone?" (Lia)

"Don't worry because I'm the great wiseman~" (Toru)

When I approaching the entrance door, it opened without permission. Outside was Japan thats filled with the smell of exhaust gas.

"Hello, I'm from NNK. Suzuki-san seems to have just move in here. If you have a TV, would you sign a contract with us!?"

"Please don't open the door without permission!!" (Toru)

Damn, I forgot to lock the door and this guy really didn't have any manners at all.

However, how could he know I just move in to this apartment? Well, there is no TV here.

"There is no TV here" (Toru)

"Eh? Really? There is no TV?"

"Internet will be enough" (Toru)

"But are you not going to watch one-segment program on your mobile?"

(TL : I don't understand about this one-segment stuff, please do tell me if you know something)

"Because it's an iPhone, I don't need it" (Toru)

I said so while smiling nicely, but this NNK fellow didn't budge at all.

"Living in such a wonderful place. You must have a TV or two, right?"

"No, there is not" (Toru)

"Well, just a bit....."

The NNK fellow is trying to enter without permission through half-opened door which reflects scenery of Japan.

"Stop it!!" (Toru)

"It's fine if there is no TV. Just give me a moment~"

"No thanks!! Please don't enter the house without permission!!" (Toru)

There are two people in bloomers inside and I absolutely don't want to show them.

But this NNK fellow is quite strong. As expected of an employee from a TV station which only broadcasting sumo wrestling, I guess.

I have been forced into sumo battle immediately. He will be entering the room at this rate.

The door is completely closed but then opened again. When his body passed through the entrance, a beautiful woman with blonde hair pushed the door back together with the man, from behind me. The NNK fellow got blown off and fell on his back inside an utterly dark room

"Oh, it's a dungeon. I see, I get it now..... it's connected to Japan when the door is opened from the outside and when the door is opened from inside, it's connected to dungeon" (Toru)

When I just moved in, I had to bring the furniture in so the door was kept open until the end. Because of that the people from the moving company could come in and out through the door without a problem.

"However, is he alright? He won't die, right?" (Toru)

The power of 【Strength】 status that Lia raised through leveling-up and her occupation effects, sent the NNK fellow flying back like a human bullet. Perhaps, it exceeds the morning blue dragon power.

(TL : I don't know what is this morning blue dragon thing. A sumo wrestler's name perhaps?)

"Because he is a dark magician, I'm sure this degree isn't a big deal for him" (Lia)

Is that so? I hope so. Good luck NNK fellow. Just as Lia said, he stood back like nothing happened.

"Suzuki-san, this is troubling me. You really have a TV inside as expected. Then the contract..... wa-wait where is this!?"

Well, that is a normal reaction because he is inside a dungeon now. Even so, this NNK fellow is tough.

"Using some kind of illusion trick because you don't want to make a contract with our company. Isn't this a bit overkill..... gyapipipi"

Deet stood behind the NNK fellow before I realize it.

"Stun Shock" (Deet)

I understood that magic by its name. That would be some kind of magic with the effect like a stun gun. For the time being, I bring this NNK fellow inside the room.

The door was distorted and couldn't be closed unless using some force. It seems I better not to anger Lia.

"Is that magic will leave any damage to the body?" (Toru)

I ask Deet secretly.

"He will be fine. It's just make body numb for a while" (Deet)

After hearing that, I bring the NNK fellow outside through the window. I put him at the end of road as not to get run over by a car. I pick up empty cans of beer from the garbage area around and arrange them side by side.

"I will check the news later just in case....." (Toru)

He is really a staunch man. It seems that rather than two beautiful women in bloomers, whether there is a TV or not inside is more important for him.

"Hmm..... You might be a deadman by now if you intruding when there are only the two inside" (Toru)

I do not want to make the two murderers. But thanks to him, I understand another mechanism of this property.

Chapter 4: I Went To Don Quijote With Elf

"Then, let me investigate it at once"

"You are really persistent, aren't you? This is illegal to enter someone's house without permission" (Toru) "Didn't Suzuki-san who let me in?"

This NNK fellow seems to be called Enami. This guy is really persistent.

(TL : 江波 how to read this name? Enami?)

"I get it. I get it already. But promise me to use the window in Japanese-style room when you leave" (Toru) After we throw him outside, he come back again as soon as he recovered his consciousness. I together with Lia who were unpacking stuffs, stopped our hands.

He is really going to get himself killed if he comes back when I'm not around. Fortunately, he doesn't seem to care with a blonde beautiful woman in a bloomers, inside.

I have no choice, I decide to let him in, to confirm it by his eyes.

"You don't have to search it until that place" (Toru)

"There is also something called bathroom TV now" (Enami) Enami is looking for TV inside the bathroom. Lia is standing between me and Enami as precaution to protect me.

"Even so, young lady....." (Enami) gulp will he comment a blonde beautiful girl in bloomers before him at least?

".....it was a good Tsuppari before. Even though I looked like this, I was former sumo wrestler. I was really surprised" (Enami)

(TL : Tsuppari (突っ張り) = To rapidly deliver a harite (張り手) or open hand strike to the opponent. This technique is frequently used by oshi-zumō or pushing sumo wrestlers) I see. That's answering the question about his toughness.

"There is nothing here....." (Enami)

I told you before. Enami is looking for TV inside bathroom, washroom, dining room, and every corners of Western-style room. The last, he comes to Japanese-style room.

"There is no TV at first glance. However, inside the closet....." (Enami) "Stop!!" (Toru)

"What is it? There is TV inside as I thought!" (Enami)

"That's wrong!!" (Toru)

"Then, what is inside?" (Enami)

I whispered to Enami.

"There are erotic books inside..... mostly are Thin Books collection. I can't let her to see them" (Toru) "It's normal for a healthy man to have one or two erotic books, so you don't have to hide it!!" (Enami) This guy is useless. There is no use to speak with him. I take Lia out of Japanese-style room.

"Is that fine? There are forbidden books inside, aren't there? It can't be..... it was the dark magician's aim since beginning....." (Lia) "No problem. Just leave him alone....." (Toru)

Enami returned after a while with his shoulder completely dropped. I somewhat feeling sorry for him.

"There was really nothing....." (Enami)

"Of course. Please don't get depressed over it!!" (Toru) "I made it into Jūryō division but had to stop from sumo wrestling because of my knees injured..... and now, I can't even get a single contract....." (Enami) (TL : Jūryō (十両) = Ten ryō. The second-highest division of sumo wrestlers, below makuuchi and above makushita, and the lowest division where the wrestlers receive a salary and full privileges) I'm don't quite understand about sumo wrestling, but he is quite amazing to be able made it into Jūryō division, isn't he?

"But I won't give up. I will come back again when Suzuki-san had bought a television" (Enami) "This is worst, please do it when I am in home. You will seriously get killed if you meet the girls without me" (Toru) I don't know whether Enami understand what I said before but he leave through "the entrance" without me knowing it.

"Fuh~ he finally left....." (Toru)

Come to think of it, where did Deet go? He was in front of the computer before, but it looks like she wasn't in the western-style room anymore.

"Lia, I leave this place to you~" (Toru)

"Yes!!" (Lia)

I ask Lia to unpack the cardboard boxes inside the dining room as I go to look for Deet.

Deet was cleaning up something alone when I went to Japanese-style room. Is that the forbidden book in her hands? That guy..... he just leave the room in a mess and went off.

"T-That's....." (Toru)

I tried to make an excuse, but Deet just opened the closet and put the books inside as if nothing had happened.

"You will be disliked by Lia if you don't hide them properly" (Deet) "No, umm. that's....." (Toru)

"You don't have to hide it from me. Please lend me one or two books of Toru's favorites later for studies" (Deet) "Eh!?" (Toru)

Once I lend her the books, I wonder what will she do with them? No, I guess I will just give them to her.

"Even so, Japan is sure amazing. I'd love to see it myself!!" (Deet) "No problem, the three of us can go anytime" (Toru)

"Let's go with only the two of us!!" (Deet)

I can't leave Lia alone here as expected. There are problems about forbidden books and it will be a disaster if someone comes when I'm not around.

Deet further persuades me when I was thinking about such things.

"You want to exchange white gold coins to Gadius gold coins, don't you?" (Deet) "Yeah, that will be a great help!!" (Toru)

I already told her about the story I cashed out Gadius coin in Japan.

"I was thinking of going back to the surface for a while" (Deet) "Eeeh?" (Toru)

I feel like it was rather sudden.

"So before that....." (Deet)

"How can Toru-sama and Deet-san go while I have to watch the house?" (Lia)

"Well, you see..... it's a common sense that using transition magic with three people or more will be dangerous. Next time I will go with Lia so cheer up!!"

(Toru) I leave Lia in the house and go to Japan together with Deet. Of course all forbidden stuffs is hidden deep inside.

"H-Have a safe trip!!" (Lia)

"I'm off!!" (Toru)

In Lia's eyes, it would look like we are disappearing into the stone wall as we wave our hands. But in actual, the two of us just passed through the window.

The idea that people from the dungeon's side can go out to Japan as long as our bodies get in touch was correct as I thought.

We already outside in the next instant. Deet opened her eyes wide before the spectacle of Japan.

"So this is Japan..... amazing!!" (Deet)

"Please do not speak much because there is no telepathy language in this world" (Toru) "How come? It's inconvenient, even though I could understand the foreign language" (Deet) "That's how is it" (Toru)

Speaking of which, monster language is not telepathic language, but even if you can't speak monster language, the adventurers seems often to be able understand it.

Once you understand monster language, it will be advantageous when monsters are attacking in group.

"I understand! I understand!" (Deet)

"Then, shall we go?" (Toru)

Deet is frightened by the surrounding and following me with a step like a baby fawn.

It would be too conspicuous if she goes outside in bloomers so I lent her jeans, shirt, and hat. Her pointed ears are hidden under the hat and her hairstyle.

"Are you okay?" (Toru)

"Y-Yes!!" (Deet)

I decide to hold her hand.

"T-Thanks!!" (Deet)

"Don't mind it" (Toru)

We get on a sidewalk beside a big arterial road. The general discount store Don Quijote is just ahead.

"HYUUU!!" (Deet)

Deet raised a loud voice when she saw a car passed, though there was a considerable distance. The surrounding people are surprised by her cries and turn their attention at us.

During that time, they give us a strange look before turn away.

"Deet, please don't make a loud voice" (Toru)

"B-But what was that? I'm scared" (Deet)

"That is a car, some kind of vehicle" (Toru)

"I knew it from computer but I never thought it was so fast!!" (Deet) Did you know it? That's quite impressive.

Deet clings on me tightly. Although it just simple shirt, jeans, and hat, it doesn't lessen her beauty. I don't think it's bad, but the jealous gazes of surrounding men have been quite conspicuous.

"Anyway, let's hurry to Don Quijote" (Toru)

"Uun~" (Deet)

When we enter Don Quijote, Deet begins to scan the surrounding without restrain.

"Those colorful stuffs, is that all for sale?" (Deet)

"Yeah, that's right!" (Toru)

"I feel giddy....." (Deet)

"Let's take a break there for a moment" (Toru)

I make Deet sit down on the bench around. There are various food shops alongside.

"Are you alright?" (Toru)

"I'm fine..... I'm fine....." (Deet)

Perhaps, she was surprised at the amount of visual information.

"I will buy something delicious" (Toru)

"No, you don't have to....." (Deet)

"It's fine, just wait a moment" (Toru)

Crepes, ice cream, takoyaki..... hmm, what should I buy? Let's go with crepes.

"Please give me one banana chocolate cream flavor, and a cola" (Toru)

Occasionally I want to eat other things, but crepes is the best with banana chocolate cream.

I saw two men were talking to Deet when I come back to the bench. Deet was staring at them with cold eyes. This is bad!!

"Excuse me. Can I help you? This girl is a foreigner and can't speak Japanese" (Toru) "So she is a foreigner as I thought. She looks like was in trouble so I asked if she got lost, but if she was with you then all good"

The two men waving their hands lightly and leave. It looks like they try to pick-up girl, but they seems not a bad guys. They disappear before long.

"What was that? How frivolous!! Suddenly talk to me casually!!" (Deet) "You seemed in trouble so they tried to help, I guess" (Toru) Her mood turns bad.

"Did they say something strange?" (Toru)

"Not really. They just said would like to show me around, but because you told me not to speak too much, I just glared at them" (Deet) They were quite handsome but it doesn't seem work for Deet. Come to think of it, I was rushing here without a second thought because Deet's cold gaze was pretty scary.

"Come eat this to make you feel better, I also bought cola for you" (Toru)
"Wh-What is this?" (Deet)

"Crepes" (Toru)

Deet looked at various things in internet before, but it seems she had not known about crepes yet.

"It's have a sweet smell, I'll try it!!" (Deet)

"Please~" (Toru)

Deet puts the edge of crepes in her glossy lips.

"Mmmnnnnnnnnnn.....!!!" (Deet)

It seems my choice was right. The crepes steadily disappearing, started from its edge. I heard that sugar is valuable in the past. It seems that in the world at dungeon's side also same.

Deet look at me hurtfully when she saw the crepes almost disappeared from her hands.

"I'm sorry..... although there is only one, but I almost ate it all....." (Deet) She tries to hand over the remaining crepes to me. There is cream in her mouth. I wipe it with a paper napkin that I got when I bought it.

"Here~" (Deet)

"You can eat the rest" (Toru)

"You are grinning~" (Deet)

"Oh sorry, sorry!! You seem to enjoy it so much" (Toru) "Hmph, it's not that special. I had enough of it~" (Deet) The truth is she wanted to eat it all. She is going to be sad if I ate the rest, but it will hurt her pride if I decline here.

I gradually understand how to handle her.

"Then, I will eat half, so please eat the other half" (Toru) ".....let's do so!!"
(Deet)

Deet still leaves the cream on her mouth.

Her good mood comes back. After that, we are able to enjoy our walk inside Don Quijote.

"Oh, it's already time for halloween huh" (Toru)

"Halloween?" (Deet)

"It is a festival when people disguising themselves with foreign costumes etc. and having fun. Halloween is something like that, at least in Japan" (Toru) I'm not interested in a festival full of Riajuu. When I'm about to leave the costumes corner, Deet is staring hard at something.

"What are you looking at?" (Toru)

Oh, it's a halloween witch costume, or a witch cosplay costume to be precise.

Chapter 5: The Matter I Parted With Magician Girl And Became Alone With The Female Knight Again

Let's see the price. Geh~ ¥5980!! it can't be compared with the price of School Swimsuit and Bloomers Set. Well, they could make a large sum of money from people who celebrating Halloween, but the problem is the elf beside me seems interested with it "Do you want it?" (Toru)

"Not really~" (Deet)

I know that she want it, but it's expensive. I took the words "not really" as a shield and tried to pass.

"I just thought that my magical power or my intelligence status will rise somehow....." (Deet) I couldn't help but stopped my feet when I heard Deet murmured so. I tried looking at the design again.

While the luster of enamel is more crappy than the black leather bondage outfits, it looks cute with a high-cut miniskirts that seems able to provide a panty shot once in a while.

"Come to think of it, the school swimsuit has a crazy defensive power, but what about the effects of bloomers?" (Toru) "Double agility" (Deet)

Bloomers are amazing. I wonder if it's because bloomers is used for physical exercise. I don't know the reason why defensive power will rise with the school swimsuit, but the possibility of magical power and intelligence status will rise with Halloween's witch costume seem to be quite high.

"Let's buy it!!" (Toru)

"Eh? Is this all right? This is expensive, isn't it?" (Deet) "Deet is going to exchange white gold coin into Gadius gold coins for me, don't you?" (Toru)

"Unn~" (Deet)

Deet seems very happy. Her eyes are shining.

Neat girl prefers a neat fashion, Gyaruru prefers a Gyaruru fashion, so I guess magician girl also prefers a witch-ish fashion.

"Touren, could I change into these clothes?" (Deet)

"Eh? Where do you want to change clothes?" (Toru)

Deet pointing at the restroom.

"I never thought you knew the place to change clothes, but....." (Toru)

"Please!" (Deet)

Though the clothes are very conspicuous but it's not a crime.

"This time only" (Toru)

"Hooray!!" (Deet)

Deet came out as a perfect witch girl after I waited in front of the restroom for a while.

"How is it? It's a pity that I can't check my status immediately" (Deet) Super conspicuous, to the extent a crowd was formed with us as the center.

"I'd like to check the status! Let's go home at once!" (Deet) "Yeah!" (Toru)

She really looks like a witch. Not just looks like, Deet could use magic if we are inside dungeon now. Some people casually following us even after we leave Don Quijote and we are also attracting the passerby's attention on the way "Such an extraordinary degree completion of high level cosplay, can I take a picture?"

"NO!!!" (Toru)

Though I feel bad for shouting towards a girl, we arrived to the apartment after walking in a quick pace.

There is no problem when entering the house from the foot door, and it will lead to the dungeon when I use the front door to come out. Hmm!?

"Welcome home~" (Lia)

"I'm home~" (Deet)

"Oh Deet-san, is that new magician clothes? It's very very cute!" (Lia) "Good, isn't it? I just bought it. You too should buy one at Don Quijote" (Deet) Ignoring the two selfish conversation, I was thinking of something that's bothering me. I got connected to the dungeon when I get out through the front door, indeed.

Wait a moment, did the guy from NNK leave through the window? I'm sure had told him to use the window when leaving. I hastily equipped the headlighted helmet and pickaxe.

"What's wrong?" (Deet)

"Toru-sama?" (Lia)

I open the entrance at once. There are monstrous slime and other monster that I have never seen before, roaming happily outside.

"You~! Are you paying the subscription fee? Take this! Take this!" (Enami) I hear a voice that seems Enami's voice coming from the other side of door. I gently closed the door and locked it before the monsters noticed me.

"Enami-san from before had opened the iron door..... what should I do....." (Toru) I'm still a low level. Lia is probably strong but she has no weapon now. Deet is the only hope.

"I need to hurry up" (Deet)

Deet raised an impending voice, she seems to have noticed that the time is crucial.

Deet brought her cane from the Japanese-style room. I also threw the things that seem to be useful into Don Quijote plastic bag appropriately.

Lia took her shield. She seems can serve as a tanker even without her weapon.

"I will open the door!!" (Toru)

"All right!!" (Lia)

"Let's go!!" (Deet)

The monsters jumped out at once when I opened the door. The great centipede is attacking us as soon as we came out. Lia receives it with her shield while Deet casts her magic.

"Mega Inferno!" (Deet)

The great centipede and other mob monsters wrapped in hellfire and burnet out. Its power can't be compared with the fire that burned the great centipede that was caught between the iron doors from that time.

The monsters have turned into charcoal before my pickaxe gets the turn.

"It seems these clothes doubled my intelligence status just as I thought! I will go rampage now!" (Deet) "Please do" (Toru)

I fight behind the stage with my pickaxe against slime and monster that looks like a moving mushroom with hands and feet.

Oops the power gushes up within me. It seems that my level has gone up.

The combination of Deet's magic attack and Lia's shield that stopped the attack from big monsters, has pushed back the enemies further until reached the iron door before long.

"All right!! Push the button, Lia!!" (Toru)

"Yes!" (Lia)

The iron door comes down while make gogogo sound until completely closed. There may small monsters left but I couldn't find any big monster anymore.

However, there is no figure of Enami in this closed room.

"Eh? He isn't here? But this is a closed room" (Toru)

"There is no corpse either, and if he got eaten..... there should be remains....." (Deet) Certainly, I didn't think that tough fellow would be eaten by monster without trace. However, he was supposed to be here because there is a stone wall at the other side of the iron door that the earthling cannot pass by alone. Ah!!

"Come to think of it, I heard he was shouting about subscription fee or something..... and it sounded he was also struggling against monster....." (Toru)

"I can only imagine that one could pass through the door even with just get in contact with monster" (Deet) If it was a slime or ghost mushroom like the one that I knocked down earlier, then I'm sure he could defeat them bare handed somehow. But it would be different if he was attacked by the great centipede.

"I will return to the world beyond right now" (Deet)

"Eh? But....." (Toru)

Deet told me that she would go back to her world right away, but will she go just as is? Encounter and farewell that is too sudden.

"Will you be fine to go alone? Lia and I can....." (Toru)

"Don't worry, because I explored dungeon throughout the country pretty much by myself. Besides, if that Enami guy still alive, though it's troublesome, I must protect him from monsters" (Deet) That's true. If someone died because they came to the room where you live, you will have difficulty sleeping. Though he came in without permission, he is not a bad guy.

"I understand. Please bring this with you! There are cola, drinks, and canned food inside. Bloomers and school swimsuit too!" (Toru) I quickly handed Don Quijote plastic bag filled with various stuffs to Deet.

"Be sure to come again" (Toru)

"Of course, don't forget about becoming a dungeon master and live together with me forever" (Deet) "If it's possible" (Toru)

I push a button that opens the iron door while smiling. The iron door steadily raised until it stopped making gogogo sound and completely opened.

"Don't worry about me or Enami. Keep the iron door closed until you installed the camera, because it's dangerous!" (Deet) "I will do so. I will install the camera as soon as possible!" (Toru) "See you!" (Deet)

Diet smiled and jumped into the stone wall before she disappeared. The iron door gradually closes when I push the button again.

After make sure that the door was closed, I and Lia returned to the apartment's room while holding hands.

It should be looking like we passed through the wall from Lia. However, she didn't say anything and was worrying Deet instead.

"I hope Deet-san will be all right" (Lia)

"If it's Deet, she will be fine. It would be great if Enami also still alive" (Toru)
"Well, even though Deet-san is a magician, but she always exploring dungeon alone" (Lia) "Yeah, let's clean up the place" (Toru)

"Yes!" (Lia)

We returned to the room and it becomes the two of us again here.

"By the way, about becoming a dungeon master and live together with Deet-san or something from a short while ago..... I didn't understand the meaning of the story other than that but..... what on earth were you talking about?" (Lia) I wonder how much she knows about the dungeon master.

"Oh, it was just something that Deet said selfishly. She should also think about Lia properly!" (Toru) "Please tell me in details!!" (Lia)

Lia has a vacuum cleaner on one hand and a shield on the other hand. The cleaning up after moving in, seems likely won't come to end soon.

Chapter 6: The Matter Hiding Slime Inside Cardboard Box Of Forbidden Books

After finished playing around with a female knight equipped with a pair of bloomers and vacuum cleaner, I started cleaning up again. The sentimental feeling due to the sudden separation with Deet has disappeared more and more as we did a physical labor.

"Deet-san is really a nice person, I never know that" (Lia)

"I knew it from the beginning" (Toru)

Both me and Lia continued cleaning up and tidying up while putting on a smile.

"Oh, the place has become quite beautiful" (Lia)

"Okay, I think its good enough. I won't use the items inside these cardboard boxes immediately, I wonder if I should store them inside the closet?" (Toru)

"Together with the forbidden books?" (Lia)

"Oh~ right..... that's right! These are..... artifacts that I don't use very much" (Toru)

"I will carry it" (Lia)

"No, No, it's fine. Lia should take a rest" (Toru)

Dangerous, that was close. I made Lia wait in the dining room while I packed the cardboard boxes that I didn't use into the closet.

"We're almost finished tidying up with this....." (Toru)

This is still the second day after I moved in to the apartment that's connected to the dungeon. Those two days felt like a storm. I want to take it easy for a while and earn some experience. But of course not real life experience that wouldn't able to be earned easily.

Regardless of whether I will become a dungeon master or not, I think that it's better to be a little stronger, my home and dungeon are connected after all.

I might be able to help Lia and Deet more if I was stronger. I wouldn't be this concerned if I didn't know them, but I do know them.

I want to make this room more comfortable as a resting place for adventurers who are in trouble, I want to put my knowledge in use more, I want to become stronger while I'm at it.

"Come to think of it, the iron door was opened with just the right timing so the monsters filled the room afterward" (Toru)

Deet has defeated a large and a brutal monster with magic. I can go to get rid of the small fishes later. Since it's already evening, let's have a dinner with Lia instead of going to the dungeon.

Enami-san came, I went to Don Quijote with Deet, I fought rampaging monsters inside the dungeon..... I just realized that now I'm so hungry because I had no time to eat lunch.

"Lia let's have a dinner. I will make something for us" (Toru)

"Oh yes, I will help too!" (Lia)

Lia is not very good with cooking but if we do it together, I guess it will be fine.

"What are you making this time?" (Lia)

"Let's see, I got some chicken so I will make Omurice" (Toru)

"Omurice?" (Lia)

"Fufufu~ You don't know it just as I thought. Omurice is delicious" (Toru)

"I am really looking forward to it" (Lia)

Let's not make Lia do any complicated stuff. I will let her make the beaten egg that have a little milk added to it.

I chop the onions finely and cut the chicken in bit-sized while casting a glance sideways to make sure there no egg shell mixed in the beaten egg.

I fry the chicken in a frying pan, stirring up the onion until translucent, then put the cooked rice together, and last added some ketchup.

"Keep stirring for some time..... and chicken rice is completed!! There is no butter so I will use a little olive in another frying pan. Lia, please give me a bowl of beaten egg!" (Toru)

"Yes!" (Lia)

"This is the tricky part that will decide whether the egg will turn out soft or not!" (Toru)

Cook the egg with medium heat, when the surface is starting to harden, pour the chicken rice and quickly put it on the plate so that the egg wrapped the chicken rice before it's completely solidified!!

"Oh, beautiful!!" (Lia)

"One serving finished! I will make another serving soon!" (Toru)

Unlike fried rice, the last process of wrapping the chicken rice with omelette, can only be done one serving at a time.

"Love is the secret of deliciousness" (Toru)

"Hmm? Did you say something?" (Lia)

"No, it's nothing!!" (Toru)

It's my habit to say strange things once in a while when cooking.

"The skill that I honed because I wanted Grandma to eat my cooking~! Yotto!!" (Toru)

"Amazing!! The egg flipped over!! Toru-sama really loves Grandma, indeed!!" (Lia)

"Did I say something again? Never mind, the dish is finished!" (Toru)

It's embarrassing. Well, Lia doesn't seem to mind it.

"Let's dig in!!" (Toru)

"Yes~!!" (Lia)

" " Itadakimasu!! " "

The two of us said "itadakimasu" together in a harmony.

"Mhnn..... delicious!! It's so delicious that my tears came out!! So fluffy!!" (Lia)

"You praised me too much, isn't it because you were hungry?" (Toru)

Even so, it seems I was able to do it well. The combination of chicken rice and fluffy egg are irresistible, indeed.

"This is also a rice dish. Does Toru-sama like the dishes made of rice?" (Lia)

"I like it~ Does Lia dislike it?" (Toru)

"I love it too!!" (Lia)

"Then, I will make other rice dishes again next time~" (Toru)

"I'm happy!!" (Lia)

"I'm glad to hear that. By the way, after finished the meal I will....." (Toru)

"May I take a bath after I finished the meal?" (Lia)

I was told that she wanted to take a bath when I tried to talk about entering the dungeon. But that's better, I can go while Lia take a bath with this.....

"I will wear a school swimsuit, so would you to enter with me? I will wash your back~" (Lia)

"N-No, that's.... I don't have a swimsuit..... wait, I think I could find one....." (Toru)

"That was a joke. Would Toru-sama take a bath first?" (Lia)

What? That was a joke? But just in case, I should look for a swimsuit. Lia entered the bath after finished washing the plate.

"Now what? I guess I'll go to the dungeon alone" (Toru)

There should be no strong enemies, so let's go!!

I equipped a helmet with headlight and pickaxe before entering the dungeon as usual.

"Monster found....." (Toru)

It's a slime. The color is light blue. To tell the truth, I have killed several of them the other moments ago. I was desperate to close the door and to help Enami-san at that time. Now I don't have that kind of thing in mind, I get nervous to face them.

But according to Deet’s story, there seems to be no case of people losing against blue light slime even if their level is 1. Furthermore, I brought Japanese equipment that’s basically has a high capability. I tightened my hand that’s holding a pickaxe.

I approached slowly and swung my pickaxe, the slime scattered with a splash.

"Good!!"

I killed several other slimes. Before long, the monster inside this room ceased to exist.

"There is no monster left huh? My level didn’t go up this time. Come to think of it, my level went up before" (Toru)

Let’s check the status.

【Skills : No-Limits Growth, Person Appraisal Lvl 1/10 】

Oh, great~ I gradually becoming stronger. My status has changed quite a bit from the previous one. My grip strength was 40kg before but now is 60kg. Hmm? Person Appraisal Lvl 1/10, huh!?

"That reminds me, this is something that Deet was talking about. When your level goes up, you can learn new skills or your skill level may go up too" (Toru)

It seems like I learned new skill as I reached level 5. Deet was also talking about this before, a skill to check the status of others and their hidden skills. I don't know about Lia's status yet, let's use it if there is a chance. I'm looking forward to it!

"I want to be stronger! Is there no more slime?" (Toru)

I thoroughly look for slime inside the big room of the dungeon, but I can hardly find any.

"There is nothing left, huh..... that's right!!" (Toru)

I wonder if there is larva of slime somewhere here. I missed a small slime before and it got bigger, so it's not that strange if this time, there is one or two small slime escaped from my sight. I carefully scan the surroundings.

"There!!" (Toru)

A slime smaller than eraser is slowly crawling on the stone floor. However, even if I defeated such a small slime, the experience value I got would be low for sure.

"Let's feed this little one until got bigger and defeat it! But wait, if things goes well, there is a chance that the slime will multiply! This is the first step of the aquaculture plan!" (Toru)

I put the smile inside a plastic bag from Don Quijote to take it home. I found a transparent tupperware in the kitchen.

"Yeah, this is a sturdy container so it will be fine" (Toru)

I placed a small plate containing water and vegetable waste.

"Open an air hole....." (Toru)

It's finished. Even so, this slime is white.

"I hear that it's better to be careful of purple and ocher-colored slime, so I wonder about the white one" (Toru)

I'm planning to nurture this slime in the dungeon but somehow, I want to watch it a little more.

Lia always took a long bath so it will be fine if it's just a little longer, I guess. Let's have a tea inside the Japanese-style room while watching the slime.

I'm watching the white slime moving and changing shape inside the tupperware without getting tired of it.

"Yup, it's gradually getting cute!!" (Toru)

I think that the slime reacted happily with purun-purun when I said that it was cute.

(TL : purun– a 'jiggling/wobbling' sound effect (puddings, breasts) word doubling– stresses a word & sometimes makes it cuter)

How adorable!! I gradually lose the feeling to kill it.

"I wonder what Lia would think if I showed the slime to her..... no, I guess that's a bad idea. I feel that Lia is afraid of monster" (Toru)

She was collapsed inside dungeon because of paralysis poison from monster attack and almost died.

Unexpected thought comes to my mind when I was thinking about such things.

"This slime, would it be better to keep it as a pet rather than for experience value?" (Toru)

Then, I suddenly heard a sound of someone coming out from the washroom.

It must be Lia, she will found out about the slime.....

"Oh, no! I have to hide this slime somewhere! That's right!!" (Toru)

In the closet, I hide the tupperware in the cardboard box full of forbidden books (= erotic doujinshi) which I had strictly warned Lia to never open it.

"You can read the forbidden book but don't come out from the closet!" (Toru)

I got the feeling that the slime shake its body with purun to answer me.

The door of Japanese-style room opened so I closed the closet in a hurry. Lia in a bloomers has a strange look on her face.

"Toru-sama, what's wrong?" (Lia)

"No-Nothing. There is absolutely nothing!!" (Toru)

"Is that so? The bathroom is available" (Lia)

"Yeah, thanks!" (Toru)

I went to the bathroom in a good mood. I hope the white slime get bigger quickly!!

Chapter 7: The Matter Slime Has Become Serious Thing

I washed my body before soaking in the bathtub.

"On second thought, I guess it might be dangerous to keep a creature of another world on the Japan side after all. I don't know whether this room belongs to Japan or the other world though" (Toru) Okay, I will move the slime to the dungeon! Though it's sad.....

Lia is wiping her armor and her shield on the tatami mats when I come out of the bath.

"Oh, sorry! Would I be a bother if I do this here?" (Lia) "No, but actually, I want to do research on the forbidden books right now" (Toru) "Oh, I see~" (Lia)

"Unn, so could you please move to dining room for a while?" (Toru)
"Understood!" (Lia)

"It seems that she likes wearing bloomers quite a lot..... no, it shouldn't be the case!" (Toru) I open the closet and check the slime. There is no change at all, it's moving around with purun-purun. So cute.....

"Hmm? Eh? The locking lid of the tupperware came off on one side?" (Toru) Did the slime unlock it using a part of its body through the air hole? Impossible, it's just a small hole that I drilled with a kitchen knife. The slime is still inside the tupperware so I bet I just forgot to lock it.

"I'm sorry. It's forbidden to keep pets in the apartments. I will keep you in the dungeon instead" (Toru) purun-purun somehow, the white slime moves its body sorrowfully. I turn my heart into one of a demon, I hid the tupperware from Lia with my body and head for the dungeon.

"Where are you going?" (Lia)

"Du-Dungeon. I'll be back soon!" (Toru)

I put down the tupperware in the corner of the dungeon room, in front of the entrance of the dungeon.

"Please, be a good slime. I will bring more delicious food and a big water tank later" (Toru) I go back to the apartment's room after talking to the white slime.

"I'm back~" (Toru)

"Welcome back, what were you doing?" (Lia)

Lia, who was still doing maintenance of her armor, asked me.

"No, it was nothing. Speaking of which, have you ever seen a white slime inside the dungeon?" (Toru) I casually changed the topic to the white slime.

"Hmm? White slime? I heard that it has already gone extinct" (Lia) "Is that so!?" (Toru)

"Yes, it seems to be a rare monster that doesn't attack humans. But I heard their number has plummeted and they haven't been seen in the last 20 years" (Lia) (Lynk: as you like) Looks like I found a super rare slime. Let's keep it in the apartment room if it doesn't attack.

"I'll go to the dungeon again" (Toru)

"Huh? Y-Yes, please be careful!!" (Lia)

I rush to the place where I left the white slime.

"Huh? The tupperware is open! The white slime is gone!" (Toru) I look around but I still can't find the white slime. The headlight is not enough. I turn on the flashlight function of the iPhone.....

"There is something over there!" (Toru)

I get close and illuminate it.

"Huh? Why is there a figurine of Miru Kokorone in a place like this?" (Toru) I found a figurine lying on the dungeon's floor. I guess this figurine was from the Japanese-style room, caught in my clothes, and fell here. That's the only possibility I could think of. I pick the figurine with my hand.

"Uwah! This figurine..... is so soft, it feels good to the touch!" (Toru) The modeling seems to be superficial but it's so good to the touch.

"I wonder when did I buy this figurine? I don't remember at all. Well, I couldn't think of any other reason besides having bought it somewhere before" (Toru) I put the figurine in my pocket and resume searching for the white slime. However, I couldn't find it. But I discovered a light-blue slime that bigger than an eraser, instead.

"Unn~ I couldn't find the white slime, I guess I will keep this one instead" (Toru) Unlike the white slime, somehow I don't find this slime cute, but I have no other choice. I try to put the slime in a tupperware with my hand.

"Ouch! Did you bite my fingers?" (Toru)

I was attacked the moment I tried to put it in a tupperware. This slime is not cute at all.

"Oh well, this is also a seed of experience. let's hunt it after it gets bigger" (Toru) Light blue slime may be better than white slime in a sense, because I won't have any hesitation to kill it. I put the slime in a tupperware and return to my room.

"I'm back~" (Toru)

"Welcome back! You are late, Toru-sama~" (Lia)

I spent a lot of time searching for the white slime. It seems that I made Lia worry.

"Sorry, I will be doing some more research on forbidden book for a little longer. I'm going to the Japanese-style room again" (Toru) I take out the figurine I picked up at the dungeon from my pocket. Yup, it's such a good figurine. The feeling when I touch it is wonderful. I'd like to look into it a little more, but it's about time to sleep.

Though there is no recollection about this figurine, let's place it together with my favorite figurines. I put down the figurine that seemed to be somewhat lonely, and turn off the light inside the Japanese-style room.

I go to Lia's side in the dining room. Lia slept with me in the beginning, but yesterday, since Deet was here, Lia slept with her.....

Maybe, she will say that she wants to sleep with someone again tonight. Her fear of sleeping alone in the dungeon probably still remains. If that's the case, I will sleep together with her in the Western-style room.

"Lia, why don't we brush our teeth and go to bed?" (Toru) "You're right. I'm getting sleepy~" (Lia)

I finished brushing my teeth while standing side-by-side with Lia.

"Excuse me, Toru-sama..... could I sleep together with you tonight?" (Lia)
"Yeah, sure!" (Toru)

"I'm sorry. It's inconvenient, isn't it?" (Lia)

"No, it's okay, are you still scared?" (Toru)

"The dark places are still....." (Lia)

I was sleeping together with Lia before but it was ended quickly. There should be no intervention today. Furthermore, today, her tracksuit has been promoted to a bloomer.

Though she doesn't link her arm around my neck as she did before, our feet are touching since we're sleeping close to each other. Or rather, it's intertwined.

Because it's important, I'll say it again. Lia's legs in bloomers are laid bare. I should have worn a short pants, or half pants at least. It's regrettable that I'm wearing a tracksuit now.

There is no intention of getting up and sneaking out to the dungeon this time. I need to sleep properly in preparation of tomorrow but... I wonder if I will be able to do it.....

.....

.....

.....

I can't sleep!!

Quite some time has passed but I don't feel like going to sleep at all.

I'm sure Lia is unable to sleep as well. However, I can hear the sound of a sleeping person breathing peacefully.

I open my eyes and check Lia with the help of the light coming from my iPhone's screen. I can see her profile comfortably sleeping on her back.

The iPhone's clock indicate that two hours had passed since I got to bed.

"Fuh~" (Toru)

I close my eyes for a moment then open them. If I can't sleep at all, it's been a while but let's play social games. However, when I opened my eyes, there was Lia, awoke.

"Oh? You're awake after all, Lia?" (Toru)

.....something is wrong. Lia is standing in full height on the bed. Even so, she has the same height as my head that is laid down on the bed. In other words, she is very small now.

But no matter how I look at her, the small Lia is Lia. Even the form of the bloomer and her hairstyle are exactly the same. However, there's another Lia sleeping behind the small Lia.

Huh? What does this mean? A dream? This is a dream, right? I am sleeping? There is no doubt that I'm so tired.

"This is the favorite form of Goshujin-sama. How about it?"

The doll-size Lia asked with a small voice suitable for that size. Did she just ask me?

"Wh-Wh-What are you?" (Toru)

Though my voice was rising in volume, I was able to ask back somehow in a small enough voice that doesn't make the big Lia to wake up.

"Huh? Isn't it identical? The contents are exactly the same as well, you know? Look!!"

The doll-size Lia took down her bloomer.

"Uwaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah!!!" (Toru)

The big Lia springs up and bounces up with a bikun. I quickly take the small Lia (so soft.....) and put her inside the tracksuit's pocket.

"Wh-What's wrong, Toru-sama?" (Lia)

"So-Sorry..... I had a nightmare about The 5th Magical War when I was still active as The Great Wiseman....." (Toru) "Oh, I see? Though I didn't know there was such a war" (Lia) Of course I also didn't know if such a war existed. But I'm sure what I just experienced is more frightening than The 5th Magical War.

"I will sleep with Toru-sama then" (Lia)

I think we were already sleeping together until a moment ago, but it would be boorish if I give her a retort so I entered the bed with Lia again.

Lia was patting my body gently with pon-pon while singing a song, but she seems to have fallen asleep first in the end.

I get off the bed quietly while holding the pocket of my tracksuit. Lia seems to be the type of person that sleeps soundly. She didn't notice me at all. I move to the Japanese-style room without making a sound.

I take out the content of my pocket cautiously. It's really a doll-sized Lia that came out with a soft feel.

"This is the Goshujin-sama's favorite form, right?"

The doll-sized Lia is crying sadly.

"Pl-Please put on the bloomers back first!" (Toru)

"Yes! sob"

The doll-size Lia wears the bloomers while crying.

I got the feeling that this doll-sized Lia is actually the white slime, but..... what should I do with it.....? What is the meaning of her calling me Goshujin-sama.....?

Chapter 8: The Matter I'm Not A Bad Slime

"Say, who are you?" (Toru)

"It seems you already know that I'm a slime, but....."

The small Lia stopped her words and trembled.

".....I'm not a bad slime!"

"....." (Toru)

"....."

Silence surrounded us for ten seconds before the white slime suddenly started crying loudly.

"U~Uwaaa..... Uwaaa.....!"

"Wa-Wait, don't cry! I just want to hear your story!" (Toru) I talk to small Lia with with voice as gentle as possible.

"Y-Yes..... sob"

"First, are you the white slime?" (Toru) "Yes I am....."

Just as I thought, the Miru Kokorone figurine was the white slime. Probably, she doesn't talk before because she was pretending to be a figurine.

"Then, why did you transformed yourself into Miru Kokorone and Lia?" (Toru)
"I wanted to be liked by Goshujin-sama..... I was sure it was the forms that Goshujin-sama likes....."

I like the both for sure. There is no room for a refutation. That's right, let's confirm the other important matter.

"The Goshujin-sama..... is that me?" (Toru) "Yes! Goshujin-sama!"

I see..... but, why is that?

"Why do I become your master?" (Toru) "Yes! It's because you are the first person I saw!"

"The first person you saw, huh..... so it wasn't because I gave you food, or you wanted to make a contract because you like me" (Toru) "Yes! It was not because food or contract"

I'm a bit disappointed with the reason.

"But I like you very much!"

"E-Eh? Is that so?" (Toru)

"Yes!"

Though it's a doll-sized Lia, I feel embarrassed to be told so. Hmm, it doesn't feel right.....

"What do you like about me? Or rather, can a slime feels love?" (Toru) "E-Eh? Unn.... You are right....."

The white slime that had responded cheerfully up to now, turned silent. I might have asked a mean question. But before long, a cheerful answer came back.

"I feel something warm inside me, this feeling makes me want to do anything for Goshujin-sama"

The doll-sized Lia is smiling a pleasant smile. Yup, that's cute. But I should remember that the other party is a slime.

"Sorry, but....." (Toru)

"Yes?"

".....are you a female?" (Toru)

Just in case, I'd like to know whether the white slime is a female or a male. It doesn't have any particular meaning, though.

However, I would be rather disappointed if it turns out that the white slime is a male, so I tried to ask to make sure of it.

"Female or male? Slimes are hermaphroditic so there are neither female or male"

Hermaphroditic, huh.....

I wonder if I looked disappointed, the white slime went to encourage me.

"I'm not male or female but it's okay, please wait a moment!"

The small Lia melted into ball shape and then turned into something amoeba-like. She is a slime after all, I thought so.

"This will be a little ticklish but please stand it!"

"Eh?" (Toru)

The white slime gets into my pants through my ankle and climbs upwards.

"W-Wait! S-Stop! Stop!" (Toru)

The white slime crawls on my body and comes out from my clothes.

"What are you doing!" (Toru)

"So-Sorry....."

The white slime returned to a doll-sized Lia. Though small, it's really Lia in a bloomers. Her beautiful face has no flaws.

"Please look!"

"What now?" (Toru)

The white slime who transformed herself as Lia, is lowering her bloomers and her underwear together.

"St-Stop it!" (Toru)

"Please just look at it for a moment!"

Well, it can't be helped if she insists. I open the fingers of my hands that are covering my eyes and take a look at her naked lower body.....

"U~Uwaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa!!!!!" (Toru)

I saw a familiar "thing" between the thighs of white slime that transformed herself as Lia.

I feel a sign of someone come rushing from the western-style room, it's the genuine Lia. I stuff the white slime into a pocket of my tracksuit again. The sliding door of Japanese-style room opened with passhin due to the slight time lag.

"Are you alright?" (Lia)

"So-Sorry..... I have a nightmare about the time when I was trying to stop The Super Magic Reactor that was running out of control.....I was sleepwalking....."

(Toru) "Toru-sama..... it's okay, because I will sleep together with you!" (Lia) I went to sleep again while listening to Lia's singing voice in the bed.

I return to the Japanese-style room several minutes later.

"I'm sorry, Goshujin-sama. I just want to prove that I can be either male or female"

"Please choose one of them!!" (Toru) I decided to talk with the white slime again after Lia fell asleep. But of course, it was after she erased "that thing" and wore the bloomers properly.

"Understood! When it's female, I will become female properly. When it's male, I will become male properly. Oh right, I will grow quickly when having human's meal!"

"Really? As big as human?" (Toru)

"Yes! I will be able to transform into human size. I will do anything that Goshujin-sama ordered! Including the lewd things!"

"No, forget about that! But, why do you ask me an order?" (Toru) "Because I'm a white slime"

"Eh? Is that normal for white slime?" (Toru) "That's right!"

"In that case, can you tell me more about your race?" (Toru) The white slime began to talk about her race.

Originally, white slime seems to be a race which coexisted with humans. They were mimicking a human's loved object and lived a pampered life. That was the ecology of white slime.

However, some people who knew it started to exploit the white slimes. Emotions close to love that white slime has for its master, and ability to transform their body even to human, was a suitable prey for some bad guys.

In the end, the white slime seemed to have lived mimicking the stone wall deep inside a difficult dungeon where people couldn't reach, so that their feelings wouldn't be abused by the first person they saw.

"Something like that happened, huh....." (Toru) "But I couldn't believe that the people were all bad. I didn't listen to the adults who tried to stop me and went to the dungeon's upper floor"

"Then, I was the first person you saw....." (Toru) "Yes, it was Toru-sama! I'm very happy to be able meet Toru-sama!"

Sorry, I'm Japanese and not a people from this world.

I tried to say that but the white slime that transformed into Lia, was looking at me with shining eyes "Hmm, wait a second! You said about growing quickly and transform into anything, right?" (Toru) "To do lewd things? It's possible if I grow up! The internal structure can be made similar as well!"

"I said to forget about that!!" (Toru) I got a very good idea.

Chapter 9: The Matter of Naming the White Slime

"Hey, I'll give you a lot food so let me ask you various things, okay?" (Toru)
"Yes! Of course! I will answer to whatever Goshujin-sama's asks even if I don't get food"

"No, because I'll feel bad, so let's go with give-and-take. First, what kind of food do you like?" (Toru) "The human foods are all delicious. I've also heard from the adults that they were nutritious."

I see, the white slimes seem to share information about humans with each other. Well of course, there is no reason not to share the information related to their own race. Their head seems to be good, too.

"In that case, I have canned mackerel with miso sauce that I bought for dungeon exploration, there is also rice..... are you fine with instant miso soup? I'll make a salad, too." (Toru) "I've never had it before, but I think it's okay."

"Good. I keep the rice warm so I can put it out immediately." (Toru) I placed a small corrugated box in a Japanese-style room. Warm rice with canned mackerel topping, miso soup, and salad were served in small dishes and put on it.

"Thank you~!"

The doll-sized Lia starts eating with a small fork.

"Nnn~ it's really delicious!!"

"Oh, I see. I'm glad to hear that. What do you usually eat in a dungeon?" (Toru) "Moss of the dungeon and monster carcasses. But the monsters in the lower floor rarely die so it was mostly moss."

"Then..... is this delicious?" (Toru)

"Yes!"

The white slime is eating vigorously. Even though it's a small fork, it's still too big for the doll-size body and she seems to have trouble eating.

"You can eat the food in slime form if it's difficult." (Toru) "B-But, I heard from the adults that our master would get angry if we weren't in their most favorite appearance."

Oh, I see. Such things happened, huh?

"I won't get angry, so you can eat in slime form" (Toru) It might be bad if she was found in her current form, as Lia. Few people have a good impression of a person playing with their dolls.

"Understood."

The white slime who returned into her original form is sitting on the top of the food and absorbing it. Because her body is translucent, it's amusing to see the food entering her body, being absorbed, and disappearing.

"Speaking of which, what's your name?" (Toru)

It is inconvenient if I don't know her name.

The white slime stopped her meal.

"I don't have a name....."

You don't have a name, huh. Hmm, what's the matter? It feels like she is suddenly out of energy.

"Can I give you a name?" (Toru)

"Can I have a name?"

The white slime seems to be energized in an instant.

"Eh? Well, it would be more convenient to have one." (Toru) "I'm happy!! I heard that everyone got a name at the time when our relationship with human was good!!"

The white slime showed her delight by shaking her body.

"Well, I guess so. Okay, I wonder what's a good name for you..... Yup, that's it. Because you look like a drop when you stay still, how about a name like Shizuku?" (Toru) Slimes in a certain game was exactly like a drop of water.

"Shizuku is such a cute name..... I like it!!" (Shizuku) The white slime..... I mean Shizuku, is shaking her body with a purun-purun sound.

"Good. Then I will call you Shizuku from now on." (Toru) "Yes!" (Shizuku)

"Speaking of which, haven't you gotten somewhat larger, Shizuku?" (Toru)

"Oh, it's true!" (Shizuku)

I can tell at glance that her body is bigger than before.

"It seems like you are getting bigger as you eat." (Toru) "I'm sorry. I didn't know that I would grow so fast." (Shizuku) Since Japanese meals have an unusual effect, perhaps it's also nutritious for slimes.

"No, it's not a bad thing. I would appreciate it if you grew up more." (Toru) "Is that so? Then I can eat even more and I will grow even bigger!!" (Shizuku) Though Lia and I had eaten before, five portions worth of rice inside the rice cooker disappeared in the blink of an eye. Shizuku's body size has changed from that of a softball to that of a basketball.

"Uoh~ You gotten bigger!!" (Toru)

"If I get bigger than this, I will be able to transform to the same size as human beings" (Shizuku) "Seriously?" (Toru)

According to Shizuku, she seems to be able to transform to the same size as humans if she ingests a lot of air bubbles.

"Or if take in water~" (Shizuku)

"Let's go to the bathroom!" (Toru)

Two people..... no, one person and one slime entered to the bathroom together.

"Can you do it using the water from this shower?" (Toru) "Yes! Then, I will transform now!" (Shizuku)

OOooohh!! She transformed into the figure of Lia in perfect size. The stark-blue bloomers were also reproduced.

"It's a bit heavy but I've transformed myself to look like Lia-sama." (Shizuku) "Is your body heavy?" (Toru)

"Yes, because there is a lot of water inside my original body. I should adjust it with some air, I guess?" (Shizuku) I see. Does that mean it's possible she gets bigger than this?

"Can you still eat meals?" (Toru)

"Yes! Goshujin-sama's meals is delicious. The white slimes can eat a huge amount of food." (Shizuku) "Really? Okay, I'll make it!" (Toru)

I went to the kitchen and opened the refrigerator. I have natto, kimchi, leeks, and soba dipping sauce. There should be the frozen udon I bought inside the freezer. I can make something with this!

"Special Stamina Splash Noodle!" (Toru)

Chilled udon with natto, kimchi, and leeks as the topping. This is the best food for a hot day.

"Yummy~!! It's really delicious!!" (Shizuku)

Shizuku keeps on eating her meals. I also keep on making the meals. I beat a piece of bread until flat and then stretch it. I apply some olive oil and pizza sauce on the surface. I put onion, cheese, bacon, basil leaves on it and then bake it inside the oven for a while.

"The Authentic Pizza Bread!" (Toru)

It became like the real pizza dough by beating a piece of bread until flat, stretched it, and applied some olive oil.

"Bring it on~! The slime could eat any amount of food!!" (Shizuku) Next..... the details are omitted.

"Anpan And Milk!" (Toru)

This combination is a Combination of God.

"The sweetness of read bean paste and the milk~~~~! Speaking of which, Goshujin-sama?" (Shizuku) "Hmm?" (Toru)

"What did Goshujin-sama want me to do?" (Shizuku)

Oh, right! I was too passionate about the cooking. I forgot there was something I wanted Shizuku to do after her body gets bigger.

"Actually, I'm working at a family restaurant. Just as a part-timer, though" (Toru) "Family restaurant? I understood about the part-time job." (Shizuku)

"You understand part-time jobs?" (Toru)

"Yes! It was written in a thin book!" (Shizuku)

"Oh, that's right!" (Toru)

Does the thin book contain that knowledge?

"Oh well. A family restaurant is something like a diner." (Toru) "I understand if it's a diner! I've heard it inside the story of the human world from the adults!" (Shizuku) I see. I wonder if Shizuku became interested in the human world after hearing such stories. Shizuku seems to have knowledge on the same level with people from the medieval world.

"While I go to work, I want you to disguise yourself as me and stay with Lia here. You can just play with her or something." (Toru) "Understood! If it's for Goshujin-sama, Shizuku will do her best!!" (Shizuku) Oh, that's good. To be honest, I thought that leaving Lia alone was dangerous in many ways.

"In that case, can you transform into me? Right down to the smallest detail, please!" (Toru) "Understood!" (Shizuku)

That said, Shizuku hugged me in Lia's appearance.

"Uaah!!" (Toru)

"Please let me scan Goshujin-sama for a moment." (Shizuku) "O-okay!" (Toru)

Lia... I mean, Shizuku's body dissolved and united with me..... I mean, her body enveloped mine.

"Okay! I can copy Goshujin-sama completely now." (Shizuku) "I see. It felt somewhat strange..... Please tell me in advance when you do this kind of thing in the future....." (Toru) "I-I'm sorry!" (Shizuku)

After Shizuku apologized, she perfectly transformed into me.

"Uoh! So, is this me? It feels different from looking myself in the mirror" (Toru) To be honest, I thought it was somewhat creepy to see myself.

"It's cool!!" (Shizuku)

Eh? Shizuku suddenly said it was cool.

"I don't think so, though?"

"It's true!! I've transformed myself into various things. But Goshujin-sama is the coolest!!" (Shizuku) Shizuku strongly insisted. Well, it's because the white slime is a race that has some kind of romantic feelings toward their master. I don't think it's bad.

"In any case, please play with Lia when I go to work. Because Lia is a child who believes everything, you will be fine as long as you use the great wiseman stuff as an excuse to everything." (Toru) Though I'm a bit worried, it's much better that leaving a girl from different world alone here.

"But, Goshujin-sama....." (Shizuku)

Hmm? I'm a little interested because Shizuku used "but" for the first time. I wonder what's she going to object to.

"Is this all right for me to play with Lia-sama while Goshujin-sama is working? Shall I work in the family restaurant for you instead?" (Shizuku) What did you say? That sounds like a dream..... No, wait, wait! Though smart, Shizuku is a slime. It's impossible for her to work at a family restaurant in another world. I'm thankful enough to have her accompany Lia.

Chapter 10: Dress Up! The Matter of Slime Armor

"Well, thanks for the thought, but I'd feel bad making Shizuku work." (Toru)
"But I ate a lot of food..... Don't you need a lot money for food expenses in the human world?" (Shizuku) "Well, sure it does." (Toru)

"Because I don't have money, I want to do something in return." (Shizuku)
Yeah, thanks. Your feelings are more than enough.

"The talk about Lia aside, working in the family restaurant is indeed impossible. Perhaps, it'll be possible in the future." (Toru) "I think I can do it right away." (Shizuku)

Saying so, Shizuku went off toward the kitchen.

"Wait, where are you going?" (Toru)

"Can I use the ingredients?" (Shizuku)

"Sure, but....." (Toru)

When I was wondering about what she'd do, Shizuku began to stretch the remaining bread by hitting it. Then she applied olive oil and pizza sauce, and put various topping ingredients on it.

(That can't be.....!)

Shizuku baked the bread in the oven and took it out while imitating me, referring to the details I spoke.

"The Authentic Pizza Bread!" (Shizuku)

It looked exactly same as the one I cooked a while ago.

"The taste is also delicious....." (Toru)

"To be able to copy an object means I have a good memory. Thus, I could also copy the actions." (Shizuku) Well, is there such a meaning? But watching her behavior so far, Shizuku is indeed a wise slime.

When exploring the dungeon, there is a possibility that I can't just return to my room to go to work. The family restaurant where I work is open 24 hours, and since around this time there should be not many customers come, why don't we go there to teach Shizuku various things?

Setting aside about tomorrow, it may be possible to have her replace me working there when the need comes.

"All right, why don't we go to take a look at the restaurant a bit?" (Toru) "Yes, thank you very much!" (Shizuku)

However, I noticed some problems.

"Speaking of which, Shizuku is too big to get into my pocket now..... What should we do?" (Toru) "I can't go in Lia-sama's appearance!?" (Shizuku)

"I want to show you the place where outsiders couldn't enter." (Toru) Besides, if I bring a beautiful blonde girl like Lia to my workplace, there will be an uproar.

"In other words, all I need to do is hide, right? In that case, please wear me, because I will become clothes!" (Shizuku) Wh-What did you say?

"To be more accurate, I will cover Goshujin-sama's body and transform myself into clothes. Goshujin-sama just needs to get naked." (Shizuku) "Is that even possible? Haven't your body gotten considerably bigger?" (Toru) Shizuku's body mass is much bigger than clothing's.

"There is a quite a lot of space between a body and clothes. If you stick closely to the body, it should be fine." (Toru) Wearing a slime, that sounds somewhat interesting. Let's try it! But, before that.....

"Could you transform into Lia first? It's tricky to stick on to me with your current figure." (Toru) "Um, yeah....." (Shizuku)

I went to the bathroom with Shizuku who was in Lia's form.

"Then, please strip." (Shizuku)

"Y-Yeah....." (Toru)

It was pretty embarrassing somehow. Shizuku in Lia's appearance hugged me and then melted. Immediately, she turned into the perfect shirt and jeans. However, there was the feeling of a jelly-like object clinging on to my body.

"Ouch!!" (Toru)

Shizuku was squeezing my crotch.

"F-Forgive me..... This child is somewhat cute.... So I just....." (Shizuku) What would you do if this guy becomes not cute anymore?

"Erk, it's getting bigger! This is just as written in the thin book..... It was so cute before, but I'm a bit scared now....." (Shizuku) Please don't elaborate it.

"Excuse me..... Because it's embarrassing, could you please make the pants part hollow?" (Toru) "Yes, I'm sorry." (Shizuku)

Yup. The slime clothes were pretty good. There was a strange feeling and an accident at first, but when I got used to it, it felt comfortable.

"The temperature can also be adjusted to some extent. For heating using energy combustion and for cooling using evaporation." (Shizuku) "I don't feel any change, though." (Toru)

"For that, I need food and water." (Shizuku)

Will the amount of her meals increase by adjusting the temperature? In any case, I think that my food expenses will be swelling up for sure.

"I have taken two days off for moving, so let's visit my part-time workplace to show my face." (Toru) "Yes!" (Shizuku)

I went outside wearing slime clothes.

"Wow, it's really different from the world above the ground that I've heard about from my friends." (Shizuku) "Actually, it's a different world, but I will explain that later." (Toru) "Understood." (Shizuku)

She doesn't ask any further questions. It's proof of her cleverness.

"I'd like you to remember this first." (Toru)

I pointed to a car.

"That's a car. It's something like a horse-drawn carriage, but with a different speed. Please be careful because you will die if you get hit by a car." (Toru) "Yes! There were also cars inside the thin book." (Shizuku) I think a car inside the thin book isn't a ride, but more like used as a hotel. I taught Shizuku about the sidewalks, roadways, traffic lights, and etc. while heading to the family restaurant.

"This is my workplace." (Toru)

"Understood. Go out from the Japanese-style room and walk 20 steps to the left, 123 steps to the right, and cross the road in front of the signal....." (Shizuku)
Amazing! I don't know about the distance because she uses the step counts, but the direction is accurate. There are only a few people around because it's still 3 o'clock in the morning. It might be just right to sell oil.

(TL : I don't understand what's the meaning of "to sell oil" here, so I translated it literally) "Well then, Shizuku should pretend to be clothes properly because we'll enter the restaurant." (Toru) "Yes!" (Shizuku)

I opened the door of the family restaurant where I work. The sound of the electronic bell told the clerk that visitors had come.

"Welcom— Oh, it's just Suzuki-kun." (Hisano)

Hisano-san welcomed me.

"Sorry for taking days off. I will go back to work tomorrow." (Toru) "You are just moving in, right? Then, it can't be helped..... By the way, how was your new apartment? Did ghosts really come out?" (Hisano) "N-No, there were no such things like ghosts." (Toru) "What? How boring~" (Hisano)

But the female knight, elf magician, and a slime, did come out.

Hirano-san is a woman in her thirties who's also a part-timer like me. Her words are sometimes spicy but she is good at looking after the others. She often took the night shift because of the high hourly wage, but abundant free time.

"I'll back to work tomorrow so I was thinking to organize the locker." (Toru)
"Oh, how diligent of you. But, was Suzuki-kun always this eager to do work?" (Hirano) "Because I like cooking." (Toru)

"Well, right. You do indeed like cooking." (Hirano)

She seems to be convinced.

"Speaking of which, who's in charge of the kitchen now?" (Hirano) "Manager.

It was Segawa-kun's shift but she suddenly took a day off. It's girl stuff, I guess." (Hirano) I see. There were times when she suddenly took a break from part-time job because of personal matters. The poor Store Manager would need to fill her place.

"I'm going to greet Store Manager a bit." (Toru)

"Sure, go ahead." (Hirano)

I parted with Hirano-san and called out Store Manager from the hall.

"Hello, Store Manager." (Toru)

"Oh, Suzuki-kun. Are you ready to go back to work tomorrow?" (Store Manager) "Yes. Give me the shift." (Toru)

"I'm glad. I heard a story that you moved into a terrific apartment. There was a rumor that once you enter, you wouldn't be able to come out again." (Store Manager) I don't find that rumor amusing in various meanings.

By the way, Store Manager is the sole staff of this family restaurant, but he is very gentle toward the part-timers. Before working here, I thought Store Manager was an important person here. However, now I only see him as pitiful boss that lets his part-time workers lead him around. The person at the top of the hierarchy in this shop is Hisano-san.

"It must be difficult to be a manager. You have to take a night shift replacing Segawa-san. Weren't you also working during the day?" (Toru) "That's right. But Segawa-kun is a college student, her personal life takes precedence over working part-time at a family restaurant. Besides, I'd be troubled if she wanted to quit." (Store Manager) This could be a chance.

"Oh right, Store Manager. Why don't you take a rest for a while? I'm still on my day off, but I can handle the kitchen for about an hour." (Toru) The Store Manager's face brightens up.

"Really? But I can't pay you for this." (Store Manager) "No, it's fine. I just want to regain the tempo for tomorrow. I'm going to change my clothes." (Toru) I went to the locker room to show Shizuku the uniform.

"I just need to transform into this, right?" (Shizuku) "Yeah, as expected of Shizuku." (Toru)

Shizuku changed her body into the uniform in an instant. We went to the kitchen.

"Go ahead to take a rest, Store Manager!" (Toru)

"Oh? Well, there is some administrative work to do, so I guess I'll take the offer. I'll be back in thirty minutes or so." (Store Manager) Store Manager is weak to pushes so I thought he wouldn't be able to refuse if I changed my clothes. I think he'll return before one hour passes.

While watching the Store Manager leaving the kitchen, I spoke to Shizuku.

"Okay, I will teach you how to cook the dishes that are frequently ordered. The recipes are written there." (Toru) Well, this family restaurant mainly serves meals that have been cooked in the central kitchen. Oven and IH cooking utensils were mostly used for re-heating. Because of that, I could make almost all of the dishes on the menu.

I belived in Shizuku's memory, and taught her all of the recipes at once. She listened quietly.

"How's that?" (Toru)

"Yes, I have learned everything." (Shizuku)

"Oh, I see. As expected of Shizuku." (Toru)

"I'm happy to be praised by Goshujin-sama." (Shizuku) That saves me from some trouble. I do not even remember everything I've said.

When I was thinking about such a thing.....

"Suzuki-kun~ the "Late-night Youth Group" has come." (Hisano) "What about Store Manager?" (Toru)

"Dunno, I guess he went out to smoke. Please make their orders at once." (Hisano) The "Late-night Youth Group" doesn't come here to make a commotion, but they come in large numbers and are ordering together all at once.

"They are our customers and I've said it to Store Manager myself. I guess I have no choice...." (Toru) "I'll do it!" (Shizuku)

Huh? I heard a cheerful voice from the uniform. No, it was Shizuku's.

Then my body began to move by itself.

"W-wait...." (Toru)

"Just watch me, Goshujin-sama!" (Shizuku)

Shizuku took control over my body's movement. When I thought 'what to do', I started cooking the orders.

"Seriously? All the dishes were made precisely." (Toru) "Ehehe~" (Shizuku)

Shizuku truly remembered all contents of my one-time explanation.

It was when I thought that I could leave it all to her.....

"Wait a moment! Don't put that gratin into the oven yet." (Toru) "Fo-Forgive me, was it wrong?" (Shizuku)

"No, nothing wrong. But put a little more cheese on it and add another 10 seconds to the timer." (Toru) "I think that I made it as per manual." (Shizuku)

"That customer always orders a gratin and likes the burnt cheese. If we increase it a little, it'll be more delicious for him, and make him want to come back again." (Toru) "Understood! Goshujin-sama is really kind." (Shizuku) "Is that so?" (Toru)

"Yes! You are cool!" (Shizuku)

In the end, I got home at 5 o'clock. I went to the bathroom to take off Shizuku... I mean, to separate.

"Even though I need to work from 8 o'clock to 15 o'clock later, I haven't slept much since yesterday." (Toru) "I think Goshujin-sama should stay at home with Lia-sama....." (Shizuku) "I can't afford to do that. I have to go to work. Moreover, I wish I could set a surveillance camera before Deet comes back. There is no problem at present. But if I keep the iron door closed, she won't be able to come back here." (Toru) In any case, I thought about going to sleep soon and slowly entered the bed where Lia was sleeping. Shizuku, in her original form, was slowly approaching with the typical movement of a slime.

"May I sleep with you?" (Shizuku)

"Sure, but don't get caught by Lia." (Toru)

Shizuku entered the bed after making trembling movements to show her joy.

"Yes! Goshijin-sama's bed..... is warm and comfortable....." (Shizuku) "Hmm?" (Toru)

"The stone floor of the dungeon was cold. I'm really glad I left the lower floor of the dungeon and met Goshujin-sama." (Shizuku) While listening to such a story from Shizuku, I was gradually lulled into a deep sleep.

Chapter 11: The Matter of “Please Call the Chef” at the Family Restaurant

Shizuku is cooking for me. The dishes, which look delicious, are being served one after another. I don't think I could finish this amount by myself. Hamburger, beef stew, fried shrimp, and gratin. Somehow, it looks like the menu in the family restaurant where I work.

That's right. I need to go to my part-time workplace today.

kring-kring-kring-kring

"Noisy~"

I stopped the classic notification sound of the alarm function on my iPhone. There was a message written on the screen.

It's strange. I almost never use this feature.

"“Goshujin-sama should just sleep” huh? Fine, I'll go back to sleep. It's still 10 o'clock anyway.... Hmm? 10 o'clock?" (Toru) I'm supposed to work from 8 to 15 o'clock today, right? Even though I should have set the alarm at 7 o'clock...

“Goshujin-sama”..... No way, Shizuku? She didn't go to the family restaurant by herself, did she?

It's all right..... I'm here and the residents of this world shouldn't be able to cross to Japan without me.

"Hmm? But since Shizuku is a slime, she could just elongate her body and go out while touching my body....." (Toru) I jumped up from the bed. Lia, who was in the dining room, called out to me, "Toru-sama, how's your physical condition?" (Lia) "Hmm? Physical condition?" (Toru)

"Toru-sama got up a few hours ago but went back to sleep because you said you were not feeling well. Are you all right now?" (Lia) Lia who seemed worried was asking me. That was Shizuku, too.

"I've recovered already!" (Toru)

"Is that so?" (Lia)

I was talking while holding four rice balls. I ate one and offered the rest to Lia.

"Have you had breakfast?" (Toru)

"I've eaten the sandwiches that Toru-sama made for breakfast, remember?"

(Lia) "Y-You are right." (Toru)

Sandwiches were also on the family restaurant's menu. There should not be enough ingredients, so I guess Shizuku made something similar to it. It wasn't just copying objects, there were quite a number of applications for Shizuku's abilities.

"I will go out in a bit using transition magic to attend a Wisemen's conference. Sorry, but there are only rice balls for lunch. You can have them all." (Toru)

"Okay." (Lia)

I left the washroom and was ready to go.

"I'm off!" (Toru)

For a moment, I almost entered the dungeon through the front door on reflex. I picked up my shoes and left through a window. I ran under the sun that had almost reached its zenith, toward my part-time workplace.

It's already 10:30 AM, but the fact that there is no phone call from my workplace until now, does this mean that Shizuku's disguise hasn't been discovered? I have no idea.

I noticed that I almost entered the store as is.

"Wait! If the two of us appear in the same place, it will be a big mess." (Toru) I looked inside the store through the glass window.

"There is no confusion inside the store. I can't see the kitchen well, but the dishes are being delivered to the customers as usual...." (Toru) Should I return home? She doesn't seem to be doing anything that will put my position in danger. Just this time..... I have no choice but to let her work here. However, I don't want to take advantage of a slime who believed in humans.

"All right!!" (Toru)

"Wel.....come....." (Tateishi)

That reminds me, today is Saturday. I recalled that a high school student, Tateishi-san, was working the current shift. Her greeting was dragged out halfway through though.

Well, of course. Right now I'm wearing big sunglasses, a mask, and a hat that I bought from the 100-Yen shop.

"A-Are you alone, Sir?" (Tateishi)

The Cool-Beauty-High-School-Girl Tateishi-san maintained her working attitude even when faced with my suspiciousness.

Sorry, Tateishi-san.

"Yes, I'm alone." (Toru)

"O-Okay, please follow me." (Tateishi)

I was guided toward the seat at the very end. Well, it was convenient for me. I ordered as soon as I sat down.

"The Mixed Grill Set, please." (Toru)

"Certainly." (Tateishi)

The mixed grill set was served after a short wait. The hamburger steak, teriyaki chicken, and wieners rode on the iron plate. The vegetable garnish was also beautifully arranged.

"It's really arranged beautifully." (Toru)

I ate a little bit of it and pressed the clerk's call button. It was not the peak time of lunch yet so Tateishi-san came immediately.

"Thank you for waiting. How can I help you?" (Tateishi) "This is really delicious." (Toru)

"T-Thank you." (Tateishi)

Up to this point, I was the kind of annoying customer that came from time to time. But I have to go through more to serve my purpose.

"Chef..... Please call the chef." (Toru)

"Eh..... Chef, is it?" (Tateishi)

"This is a family restaurant, you know?" was clearly written on her face. However, no matter what kind of face she made, she had no choice but to push it down through a feat of guts.

"It was very delicious so I would like to say a thank you! You ought to have a chef, right?" (Toru) "Eh!? Y-Yes, I will call him." (Tateishi)

For the next month..... three months, "a guest who called a chef at a family restaurant" was probably going to be a hot topic at my workplace.

Someone with a smiling face came out from the kitchen. Of course, his identity was Shizuku who received the message: "A customer wanted to say his thanks because the dish was so delicious...". I was glad that it was not someone else who came out.

"Thank you for waiting..... Goshujin-sama?" (Shizuku) Shizuku immediately discovered my identity behind the sun glasses, mask, and hat.

"This mixed grill set was delicious. I was desperate to learn how to make this menu item for about 3 months or so. This was made with the customers in mind." (Toru) "Thank you very much!!" (Shizuku)

"I'll be waiting in the toilet." (Toru)

"Eh? But....." (Shizuku)

I headed to the toilet before Shizuku could say anything. She came after a while. Two people went into a toilet stall together.

"Now, Shizuku! What are you doing?" (Toru)

"I'm sorry..... but I have not been discovered by anyone." (Shizuku) "That's not the problem. I will take over from here." (Toru) "Did I make you angry?" (Shizuku)

"I'm not angry. Let's change places for now." (Toru) I said, as calmly as possible, with a smile. She did it for me after all. I handed the sunglasses, mask, and hat to Shizuku.

"I will go out first. You can leave this place after waiting for a bit. You can eat the remaining mixed grill set and then go back home to accompany Lia." (Toru) I gave her ¥1000 to pay for the mixed grill set.

"Uuu..... I'm sorry....." (Shizuku)

"Okay, I leave the rest to you!" (Toru)

I headed to the kitchen.

I immediately went home after finishing my part time work.

"I'm tired. Somehow, I feel that my reputation is strangely rising. Even Tateishi-san, who was always cold, was somewhat kind today." (Toru) Did Shizuku do something? I'm scared to listen. I could see the apartment coming into view.

"Now that I think about it, when I enter the room, there will be two 'me's inside, no?" (Toru) Well, I do not think there will be a problem even if Lia discovered Shizuku's existence. I peeked into the Japanese-style room through a window. There was no one inside. I walked on the tatami mats that were strangely soft.

"Woah!" (Toru)

When I screamed, the sliding door of the Japanese-style room opened in an instant and Lia appeared on the other side.

"Oh, Toru-sama, so you've been hiding in such a place all along?" (Lia) I see. Did Shizuku transform into tatami mats? She seemed to have chosen the time that I returned home to hide, so Lia wouldn't see two of me in the same place.

"Hahaha..... Sorry, sorry!" (Toru)

"Toru-sama is really good at disappearing." (Lia) Apparently Shizuku turned into the background while making it seem like she was teasing Lia. This must be the result of her preparations for me to return.

"Geez, I'm going to polish my armor!" (Lia)

Lia went to the dining room to do her daily armor polishing routine. Shizuku, who had transformed herself into tatami mats, spoke to me in a low voice.

"I'm sorry, Goshujin-sama. Did I do something selfish and cause trouble for you?" (Shizuku) "No, it's fine. But please consult with me first before doing something like this next time." (Toru) "Yes, but why? My friends told me that humans make us work. Because money is needed to eat....." (Shizuku) If I had not listened to Shizuku's personal narrative, I might have done so. But among the white slimes that no longer believe in humans, Shizuku alone believes in human beings.

"I will do my own work. But Shizuku can help me with the other things." (Toru) "Goshujin-sama....." (Shizuku)

Half of it was because of Grandma.

"Everyone should make Goshujin-sama their master....." (Shizuku) "Eh?" (Toru)

Does everyone mean the other white slimes?

"Everyone is living in a harsh environment deep underground, but if Goshujin-sama becomes their master....." (Toru) "Well, I can't look after such a large amount of white slimes." (Toru) "Is that so.....? Too bad." (Shizuku)

Yeah, too bad. Well, I don't know how far it will go. But for the time being, I will explore the dungeon with the aim to become a Dungeon Master.

To do that I need to raise my level. There is still time before dinner. Let's try challenging the level-raising mechanism in the personal computer I was thinking about.
